

FRANCE PASSION

Camping-car owners,
you prefer stopovers in the countryside,
and enjoy exploring the diversity of rural France

France Passion presents the 17th edition of their guide to free, private stopover sites on farms and in vineyards

2009

*In the heart of the countryside,
in 1.400 farms and vineyards,
a little plot of land just for you!*

The France Passion network includes 1.400 farms, vineyards and specialist craftsmen waiting to welcome you between March 2009 and April 2010.

The principle is simple :

Motorhome owners can stay overnight or for 24 hours on these properties free of charge and without having to book.

Your hosts have chosen a site which provides good safe parking (flat and stable land, no obstacles), but which also allows them to get on with their everyday work without your hindering them.

All that is necessary to enjoy this amazing stopover network is to remember to say "HELLO" and "GOODBYE"!

To obtain your copy of the stopovers list, just purchase the Invitations Guide published by France Passion.

The 2009 Invitations Guide is your passport to France !

Quiet nights... freedom of choice and no charge

Surrounded by magnificent scenery, at the waters edge, at the heart of a vineyard or at the foot of a splendid Chateau, simply park and spend a worry free night with the largest camping-car host network in France!

Your hosts have come up with original ideas to make your stay more memorable!

Along your way you'll also find unusual places and activities: take part in a grape harvest, visit a tropical glasshouse, take a ride in a carriage, fish for trout, make beer, learn to cook local specialities...

The Invitations Formula How it works

Each participating farm or vineyard owner has signed a one year invitation, exclusively intended for camping-car users with self-sufficient vehicles (water, sanitation, refuse, etc...).

Property owners authorise camping-car users with valid France Passion Guest Cards to park freely on their land, by day or night, for a period limited to 24 h for each visit.

Camping-car owners receive their invitations through France Passion in the form of a booklet, revised and updated annually: The Stopover Guide (Invitations Guide), which lists all the participating properties.

To enjoy the benefits of the Stopover Guide for a whole year (from March to Easter), your only expense is the price of the Guide.

CODE OF CONDUCT :

To ensure a quiet and safe stay, please respect the following guidelines.

- Always use a valid Invitation Book (annual updates).
- Always let your host know when you arrive or leave : a simple "Hello" and "Goodbye, see you soon" is the best way to thank them !
- Time your trip to arrive at a reasonable hour, never in the middle of the night.
- Use facilities sparingly (you are not in a service area).
- Follow these guidelines, and you'll have time to take an interest in your host's work and produce, they shape the countryside around you that you enjoy so much and are proud to demonstrate their skills.

The annual kit

- Your personal guest card, issued with your first membership.
- The Stopover Guide provides directions to the properties, and information on the condition of access roads, facilities provided and your host's activities... Updated annually, and valid for one year, from March to Easter.
- A dated vehicle identification sticker, which allows property owners to make sure that vehicles arriving to stopover on their land are invited to do so.
- The map of France showing host sites.
- The "Etape Découverte" (Restaurant Guide), this supplement indicates one or two restaurants and inns close to each stopover site, where you can enjoy a good meal with suitable parking.
